

Have you ever received a telemarketing call in the evening, or during a family gathering, or on a Holiday weekend, or just anytime you happen to be at home doing something. It interups what you are doing and usually the person on the phone is pushie. It is very important that the Indiana Telephone PRivacy Law bw left unchanged. Please see to it that the FCC proposal to lesson the Indiana Law does not come about.